

Morris Ahdoot,
M.D.

Dr. Ahdoot was born in Tehran, Iran. He comes from a large family and has older brothers who are also Orange County physicians who specialize in other areas of medicine. In 1999, Dr. Ahdoot moved to Irvine to establish his private OB/GYN practice.

After receiving his bachelor's degree with honors from Yeshiva University, Dr. Ahdoot attended Chicago Medical School in Illinois for his training in medicine. His residency in OB/GYN was completed at Cook County Hospital in Chicago. While a resident he was recognized by the American Association of Gynecologic Laparoscopists (AAGL) for "Special Excellence in Endoscopic Procedures."

Dr. Ahdoot believes in quality care for all of his patients. He is also committed to excellence in his areas of special expertise - surgical procedures and high risk deliveries.
